STOCKS OF PORK .- There is probably now, the largest stock of pork held in the sea board markets, ever known in any previous season, and it must certainly seem strange to those who honestly believed last winter that there would be a great scarcity of the article this summer, where these immense supplies come from. The exhibits for the 1st of August, as regards New York and New rleaus, stand as follows for a few years back:

we have no reliable data, but parties interested put it at 80,000 barrels, which may be considered with in the mark. The stock of Cut Meats, particularly Sides, is comparatively small, in the as large by one tenth as they were this time last year, perhaps, but as regards this, nothing can be obtained beyond a vague estimate, as it is absolately impossible to obtain an accurate report from holders at any time .- Cin. Price Current.

At New York there has been a material decline in stocks, not only in "fancies" and Railroad shates, but also in several of the prominent State stocks. An increased demand for money (under some revival of trade, especially in foreign goods, and exports of specie to pay for them,) has caused a displacing of loans on stocks, etc., and hence in

THE RAILROADS .- The Orange and Alexandria Railroad Company have refused the proposition of the Central Railroad to carry freight over both roads without change of cars, same rate of freight, &c. We hope the next Legislature will compel the O. and A. Co. to comply with the evidently expressed will of the Act of the last General Assembly — Charlottesville Jeffersonian.

We hope, if our friend of the Jeffersonian will allow, that the next Legislature will teach the Central Railroad Company, in some way, the propriety of a less selfish, and more liberal course of policy, and of accommodating the public with better travelling arrangements, generally.—Blue Ridge Rep.

Business in Albemarle.—It was a general remark on Monday last, that there was less business transacted on our Court Green than for many previous terms of the County Court. The same remark might have been made with equal truth of the business transacted by the Court. The only persons whom we saw eagerly bent upon business, were some three or four guano agents from Alexandria, but they did not seem to be doing as much as they expected, owing doubtless to the fact that no arrangement has been made Alexandria and this county. - Charlottesville case of the Commonwealth es. Judy, a slave, charged with an attempt to kill her mistress. Mrs. Wm. O. Terrell, of this county, on the 9th day of April last. The facts elicited in the examination made out against the prisoner one of the strongest cases we have ever heard. The prisoner, on every occasion, has protested that no one was implicated with her in the deed, and has on more than one occasion since expressed her determination to take her mistress's life if ever she got out of jail. The prisoner appears to possess the usual intelligence of one of her age and position; and has been treated by her master and mistress with kindness. With these facts before the Court our readers will doubtless imagine that the trial would inevitably result in a sentence of death. The Court did pass that sentence and fixed the day of execution for the 1st Friday in October. The prisoner was at the time she perpetrated the deed (in April) only eight years and ten months of age, and it is thought it would be cruel to see one so young hung for an offence for which she is not morally and barely, legally responsible. The common law fixes the age at which legal responsibility commences at eight years .- Charlottesville Adc.

Servants.-Arthur Stephens sold at Culpeper Court House, on Monday last, six likely young servants at the following prices:-One boy, 14 years of age, sold for $1205; one aged 13 years $1305; one 11 years of age, $1055; one aged 9 years, $995; one aged 8 years, $810, and a girl 7 years, $569. This is an average of about $1005. These prices are unprecedented, when is it remembered 5 that all of the servants were under 15 years of age. - Richmond Enquirer.

DEATH OF MR. S. D. CRENSHAW .- We have to announce this morning, the death of another old citizen of Richmond-Mr. Spottswood D. Crenshaw, who departed this life on Thursday night, at the advanced age of 73 years. The deceased was widely known in this community as one of the most industrious, and energetic of our citizens. - Richmond

THE SPRINGS TRAVEL .- The travel to the Springs, thus far, has been unusually light. We are unable to conceive a reason for this, except that much of the Southern travel, has gone to the Northern watering places .-Stanuton Vindicator.

Real Estate is getting up to the highest figures with us. Mr. A. J. Farish offered his Hors de Ville place for sale last Fall at $12,500. Yesterday he sold 25 acres of it to Mr. G. W. Garrett for $6200; retaining the dwelling and 15 acres around it, which are worthat least $10,000.—Charlottesville Adv.

Charles Crawford, of Augusta county, was accidentally shot at Madison Court House, a few days since, by a pistol in the hands of a companion. The ball passed entirely through the abdomen, lodging near the backbone. He is still living, though in a critical condition.—Blue Ridge Republican.

Morgan, charged with burning the tailoring establishment of Wm. C. Bead, at Madison Court House, some year or so ago, and who broke jail before his trial, has been again arrested, and committed to prison. He was caught in Norfolk.-Blue Ridge

Robert H. Bosher, esq., has been appointed by Gov. Wise a member of the Board of Directors of the State Penitentiary, to fill a vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. LOCAL ITEMS.

CANAL TRADE. - Business upon the canal HARPER'S FERRY, August 4th, 1859 .- The during the week has presented about the usu-Grand Encampment I. O. O. F. met at Har- al amount of activity. The trade, however, as will be seen from the following report has been confined almost entirely to coal. In a few weeks more the trade in flour and grain will doubtless commence, when both the number of boats arriving and the amount of tolls, will be considerably increased. The whole line of the canal continues in excellent navigable order, and chief Superintendent Stone and his assistants are indefatigable in their efforts to keep it so until the close of navigation by ice. The whole number of boats James Robinson, of Martinsburg, and Dr. which have arrived during the week amounts to 87, 78 of them from Cumberland, bringing soo tons of coal, and the remainder from different points, with tan bark, lime stone. &c. The receipts of tolls at the Georgetown collector's office for the same period amounts to $3,934 as follows: ascending trade $403; descending $3,531.—Wash. Star.

The Kohl Rabbi has long been cultivated in Europe as an esteemed esculent, partaking of the flavor of both turnip and cabbage. In its general appearance it is not unlike the Ruta Baga.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY .- On Friday night, about half-past seven o'clock, a man, supposed to be a robber, was discovered in the yard back of Mr. J. A. Griffin's house, on Fairfax street, which was robbed a few nights previous; but on seeing that he was observed, he made his escape over the fence, and was soon OVERBOARD .- A little son of Capt. Griffin of the Alice Fox, fell overboard Saturday morning, from the wharf at the foot of King street, where he was playing. Mr. Chas. Tennison jumped in after him, from the Page's wharf, but he was rescued by a boat before Mr. T. could reach him.

SUDDEN DEATH.-A man named Murphy residing on Massachusetts avenue, Washington, ate too freely of unwholesome fruit, and died suddenly last Friday.

We learned last Saturday that fine rains fell on Thursday and Friday, in parts of Culpeper, Fauquier, Fairfax, &c. More rain, however, was wanted for the corn.

A SERIOUS EVIL .- The fishermen upon the Potomae river complain loudly of the gas-tar which flows into the river from the gashouses. The oily portion floats with the tide, but the tar, as it disengages itself from the greasy fluid, sinks, and adheres to any hard substances, such as stones, logs, &c., at the bottom of the river. The fish-spawn are often covered and destroyed by it. The fish for cheap and quick transportation between | become, sometimes, as it were, impregnated with it, and, consequently, unfit for food, whilst its noxious qualities are supposed to have the effect of driving larger fish from Conviction. -On Monday and Tuesday the river. It is said the interposition of the the Court in Albemarle was engaged in the | corporate authorities of Washington, Georgetown, and Alexandria will be called for to abate the nuisance. - Wash. > THE ATLANTIC HOTEL, IN NORFOLK, Mr. A. G. Newton, proprietor, is now open for the reception of guests. To say anything in regard to the enormous proportions of this hotel, or its fine exterior or interior appearance and arrangements, we simply deem superfluous, as all who have seen it, admit that is not only a credit to the city of Norfolk, but to the State at large.

The enterprizing proprietor must meet with a brilliant success. Never before did our city stand so much in need of a house of the size and character of the Atlantic, and never before did Norfolk have such an efficient and truly popular landlord.-Nov-
